"Hi Julie. This article is amazing! What a beautiful job sharing Westward Look's story. Thank you! You are true gem to work with and the resort team appreciates this editorial so much.

Thank you! I hope we can work together at other client resort locations in the future."

"Julie and I met at IMM 2023 where I introduced her to a destination I represent - Torrance. We had such great conversations and she told me she was planning a trip to the LA/OC area, and we found a way to extend her trip and allow time for her to experience Torrance firsthand. Planning this trip with Julie was seamless from the start. She gave me ideas of what activities she wanted to do, what types of stories she was interested in and was always responsive when I had a question for her. Not only did she make planning the trip seamless, but she also communicated with me when to expect social media posts and the status of the outlets that she had pitched her story to. Once her story went live, I was blown away by how much she was able to highlight in her article. She is truly a delight to work with and anyone would be so lucky to work with her! "

"WOW! Thank you so much for the edits and suggestions. I can't believe you found so many after the manuscript has been reviewed by quite a few others. All I can say is you must have a very keen eye!
